World Day of Prayer for Vocations

I am the good shepherd, says the Lord; I know my sheep, and mine knows me.

As we hear in today's Gospel, Jesus is that Good Shepherd, sent to a people who were like sheep without a shepherd. He calls not only to the children of Israel but to all those far off from Him - to whomever the Lord wishes to hear His voice. The call of the Good Shepherd leads to the restful waters of Baptism, to the anointing oil of Confirmation, and the table and overflowing cup of the Eucharist, as we sing in today's Psalm. "What are we to do?". We have been baptized. But each of us goes astray like sheep, as we hear in today's Epistle. We still need daily to repent, to seek forgiveness of our sins, and to become better people. We are called to follow in the footsteps of the Shepherd of our souls and to listen to his voice. Are we there?

IV DOMENICA DI PASQUA

Nel vangelo il pastore non solo riporta all'ovile la pecora perduta ma anche porta fuori le pecore dal recinto, quasi come per dare loro piu' liberta'. Non dimenticherò mai questo piccolo racconto. Un giorno una pecorella trovò un buco nel recinto. Curiosa, vi passò, pensando di essere finalmente libera. Saltava felice per i campi, i prati, i boschi, senza più limiti o costrizioni... All'improvviso, però, si vide inseguita da un lupo. Corse e corse, senza fiato e col cuore in gola, quando, ormai spacciata, si sentì sollevata in braccio dal Pastore che con ansia l'aveva cercata e, commosso, l'aveva ritrovata, portata in salvo. E nonostante molti lo consigliassero di farlo, il pastore non volle riparare il buco nel recinto

“My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me.” John 10:27

Jesus offers a clear contrast among shepherds. This would apply to priests, parents, and all of us in our unique way. The contrast He offers is between the ones who care deeply for those entrusted to their care and those who are just going through the motions and are more motivated by selfishness than sacrificial love.

Jesus perfectly manifested sacrificial love as the Divine Shepherd. He was willing to go all the way for us, His sheep. He was willing to sacrifice everything. He did not let suffering, persecution, rejection, and the like deter Him from His responsibility of caring for us totally and completely. It should inspire us, console us, and encourage us to know how deep His love for us is.

This love is seen, also, in the unwavering love of a parent, sibling, or dear friend. When the loved one offers us is unwavering, especially in difficult times, this is great support. And love offered to another like this forges a deep spiritual bond that is stronger than any hardship we may face. No matter what “wolf” comes our way, we must know of the unwavering support of the Divine Shepherd. And when we can see that love made manifest in the unwavering support of others, we are doubly blessed.

But the contrast should not be ignored either. Jesus gives the example of “a hired man who is not a shepherd” who sees the wolf coming and runs. When he runs from his responsibility and gives into selfish motivation, he leaves the flock untended and vulnerable to attack. We should see in this hired man the temptation we all inevitably face in life. It’s hard to stick with it through the hard times. It’s hard to be there for those who need us when they need us. It’s hard to be faithful in all things and to never shy away in the face of the temptation of fear.

Jesus offers His unwavering love and support to us as our Shepherd, but He also wants us to listen to his voice, to stay close to Him by offering this same commitment to help and take care of one another.

Reflect, today, how well you imitate the Good Shepherd. As a priest, parent, sibling, parishioner, or dear friend let Him shepherd you so that you may shepherd others with love. Run to the Good Shepherd and trust in His perfect love for you.

Lord, I thank You for Your unwavering support of me as my Shepherd. And I thank You for those who act as Your instruments of this deep love and commitment especially doctors and nurses in the front line fighting the corona-virus. Help me to fulfill my role of shepherding Your people, the people You have placed in my life. May I never run from the glorious responsibility You have called me to. Jesus, Good Shepherd I trust in You.

Gesù è il buon pastore che vuole la nostra salvezza.

Cristo è il buon pastore che guida il suo gregge con amore, proteggendolo dai lupi, fino a donare la vita per le sue pecore.

E del suo gregge fanno parte tutti gli uomini, indistintamente: “Un solo gregge, un solo pastore”. Egli è a guida di tutti, perché ogni uomo e ogni donna possano trovare in lui protezione sicura da tutto ciò che è minaccia. Il messaggio di questo Vangelo è di grande conforto: l’immagine del pastore buono ci dona la gioia di sapere che davanti a noi c’è Gesù che è buono e vuole la nostra salvezza. Egli è disposto a dare la sua vita per noi, tanto grande è il suo amore. Gesù ha accettato di morire in croce perché noi avessimo la vita eterna. Grazie Gesù!
