FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

July 13, 2025

Your words, Lord, are spirit and life; you have the words of everlasting life.

The parable of the Good Samaritan is one of our Lord's best-known short stories. When a lawyer approaches Jesus inquiring as to who his neighbor is, Jesus directs his attention to what is a good neighbor entails. He paints a portrait of a man who was robbed on the road from Jerusalem to Jericho and beaten. The Priest and the Levite passed by on the other side of the road because to touch the dead body would have meant their exclusion from religious service in the Temple. The unlikely hero of the story turns out to be a Samaritan acting out of sheer love and generosity. He opened his heart and recognized a neighbor even as a despised Jew.

XV DOMENICA DEL TEMPO ORDINARIO

La parabola del Buon Samaritano - L'uomo che scende da Gerusalemme a Gerico rappresenta tutti gli uomini, per ciascuno dei quali la vita è una traversata del deserto; ciascuno è solo nel cammino attraverso il "deserto" di questo mondo, dove incontra dei briganti che colpiscono spesso anche noi lasciandoci psicologicamente e spiritualmente mezzi morti. Molti ci passano accanto senza prestarci aiuto, o perché non si accorgono delle nostre ferite, perché non hanno tempo o peggio, perché non gliene importa nulla. Ma uno c'è, che conosce più a fondo lo stato di salute della nostra anima e la vuole curare. Quella del buon samaritano è una parabola autobiografica: il vero buon samaritano, è sempre lui Gesù il nostro Salvatore e Redentore.

Men on the road.

Men who are imperfect and troubled by sin, on the one hand, we are not sure what is good and right, and on the other hand, we are often not ready to do good. That is why God gave us the commandments: they show us what is right and make everyone feel what they must do. This is why the Jews of the Old Covenant established a system of more than five hundred commandments and prohibitions, which was supposed to enable them to do God's will in everything, because they no longer had a clear vision of what was essential in God's eyes and got lost in detail, as we often do. Jesus teaches us again that a Samaritan who is despised (in the eyes of the doctors of the law) can do good in a natural way by following the voice of his heart, while two pious Jews are disgracefully indifferent. We too are invited to follow the main commandment and deserve eternal life!
